4 THE FUND

This part of the Information Memorandum sets out details of the Manager's investment policies and the Fund's investment objective, strategy, permitted investments and investment restrictions.

4.1 Investment Objective

To achieve higher returns than 1-Month Islamic Fixed Deposit Rate over the short to medium term and to provide liquidity while preserving capital by investing in high quality Shariah-compliant fixed income securities in Malaysia.

Note: The Manager regards 1-3 years as short to medium term.

Unitholders' approval is required for any material changes to the Fund's investment objective.

4.2 Investment Process and Strategy of the Fund

The Fund may invest primarily in high quality Shariah-compliant fixed income securities in Malaysia where all the investment instruments must be acceptable and approved instruments under the Shariah Advisory Council of the Securities Commission, the Shariah Council of Bank Negara Malaysia and / or any other relevant Shariah authorities. The Fund will be actively managed to provide liquidity to meet the short to medium term cash flow requirement. The Manager may allocate up to 100% of the fund in Shariah-compliant fixed income securities or up to 100% of the Fund in Shariah-compliant cash, Shariah-compliant liquid assets or other permitted investments. The average duration of the portfolio shall not be more than two (2) years.

The investment process is based on the investment philosophy that asset prices in different economies as well as between asset classes are correlated. Any changes in the Fund's investment strategy would be based on long term view or secular trends, rather than short-term factors.

Superior investment returns are obtained by early identification of undiscounted changes in companies or in the environment in which they operate at both macro and micro levels. Asset classes are not viewed in isolation; instead a 'top-down' macro view of different asset classes and an understanding of their inter-relationships is sought before devising an appropriate investment strategy. Investments in fixed income instruments are, therefore, undertaken after an assessment of global and domestic economic trends, and their impact on the fixed income asset class. This sets the framework for the asset allocation decision and the determination of maturity structure for the Fund.

The Fund will focus on consistent, above-average returns from fundamental research rather than from frequent trading. Emphasis is placed on credit-worthiness and investment-grade issuers of debt. A disciplined application of the 'top-down' investment process is, therefore, applied with due consideration given to the credit standing of individual issuers.

4.3 Fund Category, Type and Performance Indicator/Benchmark

Fund Type/Category	Income / Islamic Short Term Fixed Income Securities

The bases of valuation of the investments of the Fund are generally valued in accordance with their respective asset class.

For suspended counters, it is at the Manager's sole discretion to value the securities at a price which it believes to be fair and to be agreed by the Auditor of the Fund and approved by the Trustee.

Investments in unquoted securities (other than bonds and fixed income securities) will be valued based on methods deemed to be fair and reasonable that are acceptable to the Manager, verified by the Auditor and approved by the Trustee.

Investments in fixed income securities which are not listed on any recognised stock exchange, will be valued as follows, listed in the order of priority:-

- (i) at least weekly by reference to the average indicative yield quoted by at least three (3) independent financial institutions selected by the Fund Manager; or
- (ii) the fair value as determined in good faith by the Fund Manager, on methods or bases to be decided by Fund Manager at its sole discretion (subject to approval by Auditor of the Fund and the Trustee).

Investments in fixed income securities with less than 1 year to maturity are valued based on accretion method using yield or discount rate at cost.

Investment in futures contracts traded on Bursa Malaysia will be valued based on "mark-to-market".

The Fund may not borrow cash or other assets in connection with its activities.

5 RISKS

5.1 General Risks

Investors should consider and understand the risks of investing in the Fund before applying for Units. Generally, some of the risk factors that should be considered by the investors of the Fund are market, liquidity, inflation and interest rates risks and the risk of default by the corporation issuing the instrument.

An investment in the Fund is meant to produce returns over the medium to long term. Investors should not expect to obtain short-term gains from such investment.

Investors should note that the value of Units, and the income accruing to the Units, may fall or rise and that investors may not get back their original investment.

5.2 Specific Risks of the Fund

The Fund is susceptible to the following risks:

(a) Market Risk

The usual risks of investing and participating in listed and unlisted securities apply to an investment in the Units of the Fund. Prices of securities may go up or down in response to changes in economic conditions, interest rates, and the market's perception of securities. These may cause the price of Units to go up or down as the price of Units is based on the current market value of the investments of the Fund.

(b) Interest Rate Risk

Investments in debt securities are subject to the risk of interest-rate fluctuations. Prices of debt securities move in the opposite direction of interest rates. A rise/fall in interest rates will cause a fall /rise in prices of debt securities and investors may experience a capital loss/gain should the debt securities be sold before maturity.

The interest rate risk is a general economic indicator that will have an impact on the management of funds regardless the Fund is a Shariah fund or otherwise. All the investments carried out for the Fund are Shariah-compliant.

(c) Credit/ Default Risk

This refers to the creditworthiness of the bond issuer and its expected ability to repay debt. Default happens when the issuer is not able to make timely payments of interest on the coupon payment date or principal repayment on the maturity date.

Investments in debt securities are subject to adverse changes in the financial condition of the issuer, or in general economic conditions, or both, or any unanticipated rise in interest rates, which may impair the ability of the issuer to make payments of interest and principal, especially if the issuer is highly leveraged. Such issuer's ability to meet its debt obligations may also be adversely affected by specific corporate developments, or the issuer's inability to meet specific projected business forecasts, or the unavailability of additional financing. Also, an economic downturn or an increase in interest rates may increase the potential for default by the issuers of these securities.

(d) Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk is defined as the ease with which a security can be sold at or near its fair value depending on the volume traded on the market. This is a risk more pertinent to a bond fund as bonds are generally not as easily liquidated in comparison to equities. In the event some of the underlying investments of the Fund are not actively traded, there is a risk the Manager may not be able to easily liquidate such investments and as a result, investors may face difficulties in redeeming their Units.

(e) Inflation/Purchasing Power Risk

Inflation can be described as increases of price level of goods and services and is commonly represented using the Consumer Price Index. High inflation reduces the purchasing power of a fixed sum of money. In an inflationary environment, fixed rate securities are exposed to higher inflation risk than inflation-linked securities.

(f) Counterparty Risk

The risk that an issuer of security, or a bank or financial institution that is a party to the contract, may default of its payment.

(g) Fund Management Risk

Good fund management is an art, not an exact science. Thus, one fund manager's portfolio will invariably be different to another's. Therefore, a fund that underperform its peers in one year could outperform in another.

(h) Operational/Compliance Risk

This involves the risk of fraudulent acts or the risk that rules set out in the governing deed or law that govern the Wholesale Fund are not being complied with, which may result in loss to the Fund. This risk may also occur indirectly due to legal risk, which is risk of circumstances from the imposition and/or amendment on the relevant regulatory frameworks, laws, rules and other legal practices affecting the Fund.

(i) Futures Contracts and Derivative Risk

The most prominent risk would be the effects of gearing. As trading is conducted on an initial margin basis, a relatively small price movement in a futures contract may result in an immediate and substantial loss or gain for the fund.

- (j) Shariah Specific Risk
The risk that an Islamic fund does not conform to the Principle of Shariah may result in the fund being not Islamic. If this occurs, there is a possibility that the unit price of the fund may be adversely affected.

5.3 Risk Management

The Manager will adopt the following risk management techniques to the identified risks:

- (a) Market Risk
The Manager mitigates this risk through diversification to reduce volatility of the market, which may be caused by changes to and/or developments in the regulations, politics and the economy of the country.

- (b) Interest Rate Risk
The Manager adopts a 'top-down' investment approach to ensure a thorough evaluation of macro-economic factors is undertaken in order to form an interest rate view. The Manager will develop the portfolio maturity structure based on their interest rate view to capitalise on expected movements in interest rates. In addition, it is also intended to have maturity diversification to ensure limited impact on the portfolio value in case of adverse changes in interest rate direction.

The interest rate risk is a general economic indicator that will have an impact on the management of funds regardless the Fund is a Shariah fund or otherwise. All the investments carried out for the Fund are Shariah-compliant.

- (c) Credit / Default Risk
The Manager minimises this risk by adopting the following measures:-
- Conducting thorough credit analysis before any investment;
 - Diversifying the portfolio by investing in different issuers, if possible.

- (d) Liquidity Risk
The Manager shall endeavour to minimise inherent liquidity risk.

- (e) Inflation / Purchasing Power Risk
This risk is minimised by active management of the portfolio maturity structure in anticipation of any movements in inflation. The Fund will mainly invest in either short-term and medium term or high quality liquid issues which enable the portfolio to adjust quickly to any changes in the rates of interest and inflation.

- (f) Counterparty Risk
This risk is minimised by dealing mainly with reputable financial institution with good ratings.

- (g) Fund Management Risk
The risk is reduced through the implementation of a consistent structured investment process, operational procedures and stringent internal controls.

- (h) Operation / Compliance Risk
This involves the risk of fraudulent acts, or the risk that rules set out in the governing deed or law that govern the WF are not being complied with, which may result in loss to the Fund. The risk is reduced through the establishment of appropriate compliance guidelines and internal control policies.

- (i) Futures Contracts and Derivatives Risk
Futures Contracts and Derivatives will only be employed for hedging purposes.

(j) Shariah Specific Risk

The Shariah Adviser is responsible for setting investment guidelines, providing references and consultations to the Manager on permitted Islamic investments. The Shariah Adviser also monitors and ensures that the Manager complies strictly with the Principles of Shariah.

7 Transaction Information

7.1 Calculation of Unit Prices

Valuation Point

The NAV of the Fund is computed at the end of every Business Day.

NAV of the Fund

The NAV of the Fund means the total value of the Fund's investments, assets and properties less the Fund's expenses or liabilities incurred or accrued for the day.

Below is an illustration on how the NAV of the Fund is calculated:

If the investments of the Fund is RM240,772,498, other assets of the Fund including cash is RM18,668,352 and the liabilities of the Fund is at RM2,858,986, at the valuation point, the NAV of the Fund at that valuation point will be:

	Securities Investment	RM 240,772,498
Add :	Assets (including cash)	18,668,352
		<hr/> 259,440,850
Less :	Liabilities	2,858,986
		<hr/> 256,581,864
	NAV before deducting Management Fee, Fund Accounting Fee and Trustee Fee for the day	256,581,864
Less :	Trustee Fee for the day (at 0.05% per annum calculated based on the NAV subject to a minimum of RM7,500 per annum)	351
	256,581,864 x 0.05% 365
	Management Fee for the day (at 0.50% per annum calculated based on the NAV)	3,514

$$\frac{256,581,864 \times 0.50\%}{365}$$

Fund Accounting Fee for the day
(at 0.03% per annum calculated based on the NAV subject to a minimum of RM4,500 per annum)

$$\frac{256,581,864 \times 0.03\%}{365}$$

NAV of the Fund

256,577,788

NAV per Unit

The NAV per Unit is calculated by dividing the total NAV of the Fund by the total number of Units in circulation at the Valuation Point.

Below is an illustration on how the NAV per Unit of the Fund is calculated:

Say for example the number of Units in circulation for the Fund is 200,000,000 Units and the NAV of the Fund is RM 256,577,788 at the point of valuation the NAV per Unit will be,

NAV of the Fund	:	RM 256,577,788
Number of Units in Circulation	:	200,000,000 Units
NAV per Unit	:	1.2829

Pricing Basis

During Initial Offer Period

During the Initial Offer Period, the selling price per Unit will be RM1.00.

After Initial Offer Period

The Manager is adopting the single pricing method in calculating a Unitholder's investment for and redemption of Units. The selling price per unit and the redemption price per unit is the NAV per Unit of the Fund. The selling price per unit and the redemption price per unit are based on forward pricing.

7.2 Transaction Details

The Manager reserves the right not to accept any application either wholly or in part. If your application is not accepted, the application money will be refunded, but without any interest accruing.

How to redeem

The application for redemption can be made on any Business Day ("T Day") by sending the prescribed redemption application form to the Manager.

For a redemption request received by the Manager before 4:00 p.m. on any T Day, Units will be effected based on the NAV per unit of the Fund at the end of the next Business Day ("T+1"). Redemption request received after 4:00 p.m. on any Business Day will be deemed to have been received on the following Business Day.

Payment for the redemption to Unitholder will be made latest by third Business Day ("T+3") from the date of the redemption request received by the Manager before 4:00 p.m. on any T Day.

For example:

Investor submitted Application for Redemption : 4 January 2010 (Monday)
before 4:00 p.m (T Day)

Units effected based on NAV per unit of the Fund (T+1) : 5 January 2010 (Tuesday)

Latest payment date (T+3) : 7 January 2010 (Thursday)

The redemption application forms are available upon request from the Manager at the address of the Manager as set out in this Information Memorandum. All redemption proceeds will be paid to the bank account designated by the Unitholder.

There is no limit on the number of redemptions that may be made by any investor, except that each redemption request must be for a minimum of RM10,000 and in multiples of RM1,000. A Unitholder cannot revoke a redemption request unless the Manager agrees.

In the event a redemption of Units by a Unitholder would result in that Unitholder holding less than 100,000 units, the redemption request will be deemed to be in respect of all the Units held by the Unitholder. However, the Manager reserves the right to waive this requirement in respect of the Fund, either generally (for all Unitholders) or specifically (for any particular Unitholder) at its absolute discretion.

Transfer of Units

Units are transferable subject to the Manager's discretion and the transferee being more than 18 years of age at the time of transfer. The application for the transfer must be made in the prescribed form which is available upon request at the office of the Manager as set out in this Information Memorandum. The duly completed and signed form must be accompanied by such evidence as may be required by the Manager to prove the title of the transferor and his right to transfer the units.

There are no fees charged for the transfer of units.

Switching

Unitholders have the option of switching their units of the Fund between any of the other funds managed by the Manager, based on the value of their investments in the Fund at the point of exercising the switch. No switching fee will be charged.

A switch is processed as a redemption from one Fund and an investment into another. Unit prices for the transaction will be based on the next valuation point on the Business Day on which the completed application is received by the Manager.

Special Redemption Mechanism

In a situation where the Manager receives a high amount of redemption requests on any Business Day (more than 30% of the Fund's NAV), the Manager shall be entitled to base the calculation of redemption on several valuation points (instead of the NAV per Unit of the Fund at the end of the next Business Day from the day the Manager receives the redemption request). For example, if the redemption requests received today is more than 30% of the Fund's NAV, the Manager shall sell off assets of the Fund on staggered basis and based on different business days NAV per Unit of the Fund.

However, the Manager may only invoke this mechanism when market conditions are such that it would not be possible to liquidate assets of the Fund at a reasonable price or prices beneficial to the Fund without jeopardising the whole investment portfolio of the Fund. Other factors that may also affect the decision of the Manager are, amongst others, as follows:

- Liquidity of a particular investment;
- Aggregate prices for disposal;
- Amount of assets to be disposed of; and
- Other investment limits and restrictions of the Fund.

If the mechanism were to be implemented, the Manager will sell off assets of the Fund on a staggered basis. This would result in the calculation of the redemption proceeds being based on several Redemption Prices being computed with each redeeming Unitholder being paid proportionately in accordance with the quantum of his redemption request calculated at the several Valuation Points for those several Redemption Prices until the sell down is complete.

Suspension

The Manager has the right to suspend the sale and redemption of Units where the interest of the Unitholders is materially affected or where there is good or sufficient reason to do so, having regard to the interest of the Unitholders or potential Unitholders.

The Manager may also request to suspend the sale and redemption of Units where it would be impractical for the Manager to calculate the NAV due to:

- (i) the closure of a securities exchange or trading restrictions on a securities exchange;
- (ii) an emergency or other state of affairs;
- (iii) the realization of investments of the Fund not being able to be effected at prices which could be realized if the investments were realized in an orderly fashion over a reasonable period in a stable market; or
- (iv) the existence of any state of affairs which in the opinion of the Manager, might prejudice the interest of the Unitholders as a whole or the assets of the Fund.

If at any time the appointment of the Trustee is terminated and a new trustee has not been appointed yet, the sale and redemption of Units will be suspended until a new trustee has been appointed.

The period of suspension will not exceed 30 days, or such longer period as permitted under the Relevant Laws.

All outstanding redemptions and any redemption request or application for Units received during the suspension period are deemed to have been received on the Business Day after the suspension ceases.

7.3 Other Information

Income Distribution and Reinvestment Policies

The Fund intends to distribute income, if any, at least once a year on best effort basis. However, the Manager reserves the right not to distribute income, at its absolute discretion.

In the absence of instructions from a Unitholder, distributions from a Fund are automatically reinvested into additional Units of that Fund based on the NAV per Unit at the end of the distribution date. There is no sales charge imposed for such re-investment of Units. Unitholders may instruct that the distributions declared be paid out to them instead of being reinvested into additional units of the Fund.

Cross Trades

To provide more liquidity in the dealing of securities, the Manager may carry out transactions between the Fund and investment portfolios of its other customers ("cross-trades") and combine the trade orders for the Fund with orders for investment portfolios of its other customers ("block trades"), provided always that any such cross-trades or block trades are conducted on a best execution basis and are no less favourable to the Fund when compared to an arm's length transaction between independent parties.

The Manager shall have full discretion to determine the price (or yield) on such trades by taking into factors such as brokers valuation, bond pricing agencies, market quotes, odd lot trades and market condition. The Manager will decide the price which the Manager believes to be the fair price to the seller, who will provide the securities in time of shortage and the buyer who will provide the liquidity in cash in time of seller who wants to liquidate the securities or the portfolio. All cross-trades or block trades shall be done in compliance with the relevant laws.

Unclaimed Income Policy

Unitholders may instruct that the distributions declared be paid out to them instead of being reinvested into additional units of the Fund. These unitholders would receive a cheque for the amount of income declared and distributable to them. If the cheque is not cashed within six months from the date of the cheque, the Manager will proceed to reinvest such unclaimed income into additional units of the Fund based on the price within 14 days from the expiry date of the cheque.

Unclaimed Moneys Policy

Unclaimed moneys, other than unclaimed income, will be filed with the Registrar of Unclaimed Moneys after the lapse of one year from the date of payment. The amount represented by such unclaimed moneys will be paid to the Registrar of Unclaimed Moneys after a further period of 12 months if such unclaimed monies remain unpaid and no claims are made on the unclaimed moneys by the registered Unitholders.

Death, Legal Disability

If a Unitholder dies or becomes subject to a legal disability such as bankruptcy or insanity, only the survivor who is not a minor (in the case of joint Unitholders) or legal personal representative (in any other case) will be recognised as having any claim to the Units registered in the Unitholder's name.

A trustee, executor or administrator of the estate of any deceased person who was registered or beneficially entitled to be registered as a Unitholder may become registered as the Unitholder in respect of the Units of the deceased person as trustee, executor or administrator of that estate and will, in respect of such Units, be entitled to the same rights as he would have been entitled to if the Units of the deceased person had remained registered in the name of the deceased person.

Anti-Money Laundering

In order to comply with regulations aimed at the prevention of money laundering, the Manager may require prospective investors to provide evidence to verify their identity and the source of payment. Accordingly, the Manager reserves the right to request such information as it considers necessary to verify the identity of a prospective investor. The Manager may refuse to accept any subscription application if a prospective investor delays in producing or fails to produce any information required by the Manager for the purpose of verification and, in that event, any funds received by the Manager will be returned without interest to the account from which the moneys were originally debited.

Register of Unitholders

The Manager will keep a register of Unitholders at the office of the Manager. The register of Unitholders will contain the names and addresses of Unitholders, the number of Units held by each Unitholder and the dates on which Units were issued to such Unitholders.

Any Unitholder may inspect the register on any Business Day at any time during ordinary business hours of the Manager and obtain such information pertaining to his/its Units as permitted under the Relevant Laws. Any Unitholder may request the Manager to furnish him/it with an extract from the register in so far as it relates to his/its name, address, number of Units held by him/it and amounts paid on those Units and the Manager will, upon payment in advance of a reasonable fee as it may require, cause any extract so requested to be sent to that Unitholder within fourteen (14) business days or such other reasonable period, commencing on the day after the request is received by the Manager.

The contents of the register of Unitholders will be prima facie evidence of any matters contained therein.

How an investor can keep track of his investment

Investors will be informed of the Fund's performance through monthly statement, quarterly reports and the audited annual report for each Financial Year of the Fund. Monthly statements and reports (quarterly and annual) will be sent to investors no later than one (1) month and two (2) months from the end of the stated periods respectively.

From these reports, investors will be able to have an overview of the performance of the Fund and the investments of the Fund.

Investors will also be able to obtain information regarding the NAV per unit of the Fund by contacting us.

Dear Sirs

OPUS SHARIAH CASH EXTRA FUND TAXATION OF THE FUND AND UNIT HOLDERS

This letter has been prepared for inclusion in the Information Memorandum in connection with the offer of units in the wholesale fund known as the Opus Shariah Cash Extra Fund (hereinafter referred to as “the Fund”).

1. INFORMATION ON THE FUND

We have been provided with the Information Memorandum for the Fund. Based on the Information Memorandum, the Fund represents a wholesale fund investment scheme falling within the Guidelines on Wholesale Funds issued by the Securities Commission.

2. A “WHOLESALE FUND” IS A UNIT TRUST

The terms “unit trust” or “wholesale fund” are not specifically defined under the Malaysia Income Tax Act, 1967 (“MITA”). As such, reference is made to guidelines and rules issued by the Securities Commission and the provisions under the Securities Commission Act, 1993 for the definitions of these terms.

2.1. Unit trust

Pursuant to the Securities Commission Act, 1993:

“Unit trust scheme” means any arrangement made for the purpose, or having the effect, of providing facilities for the participation of persons as beneficiaries under a trust in profits or income arising from the acquisition, holding, management or disposal of—

- (i) securities;*
- (ii) futures contracts; or*
- (iii) any other property.*

2.2. Wholesale fund

According to the Securities Commission's Guidelines on Wholesale Funds issued on 18 February 2009:

"Wholesale fund" means a unit trust fund, the units of which are issued, offered for subscription or purchase, or for which invitations to subscribe for or purchase the units have been made, exclusively to qualified investors.

Based on the above definitions, a wholesale fund is a unit trust scheme. It thus follows that the tax treatments accorded to a unit trust under the MITA should also be applicable to a wholesale fund.

3. TAXATION OF A UNIT TRUST FUND ("THE FUND")

3.1 Taxable income

The taxation of the Fund which is a unit trust scheme is governed principally by Sections 61 and 63B of the MITA. The Fund's Trustee is Deutsche Trustees Malaysia Berhad, a resident in Malaysia for tax purposes. It thus follows that the Fund is regarded as a Malaysian tax resident.

The income of the Fund in respect of dividends, interest or profits from deposits and other investment income derived from or accruing in Malaysia is liable to income tax unless specifically exempted under the law. In this respect, any gains or profits received, in lieu of interest, for transactions conducted in accordance with the principles of Shariah, will be treated as interest and be accorded the same treatment as if they were interest in accordance with Section 2(7) of the MITA.

Taxable dividends received by the Fund will be subject to tax but a tax credit will be available for offset wholly or partially against the Fund's tax liability. The excess of tax credit over the tax liability of the Fund, if any, will be refundable to the Fund.

The income tax rate applicable to the Fund is 25% with effect from the year of assessment ("YA") 2009.

3.2 Exempt income/Non taxable income

(a) Profits from the realization of investments

Gains from sale of investments will not be treated as income of the Fund and hence, are not subject to income tax.

(b) Dividend income

Dividends received by the Fund from other Malaysian entities are taxable unless such dividends are tax exempted dividends, in which case they are not subject to income tax. Tax exempt dividends include dividends distributed under the single tier tax system.

(c) Interest income

Interest income received by the Fund from the following are exempt from income tax:-

- (i) Securities or bonds issued or guaranteed by the Government [Paragraph 35(a) to Schedule 6 of the MITA];
- (ii) Debentures or Islamic securities, other than convertible stock, approved by the Securities Commission [Paragraph 35(b) to Schedule 6 of the MITA];
- (iii) Bon Simpanan Malaysia issued by Central Bank of Malaysia [Paragraph 35(c) to Schedule 6 of the MITA];
- (iv) Deposits with banks or financial institutions licensed under the Banking and Financial Institutions Act 1989 or the Islamic Banking Act 1983 [Paragraph 35A to Schedule 6 of the MITA];
- (v) Islamic securities originating from Malaysia, other than convertible loan stock issued in any currency other than Ringgit and approved by the Securities Commission or the Labuan Offshore Financial Services Authority [Paragraph 33B to Schedule 6 of the MITA];
- (vi) Any savings certificates issued by the Government [Paragraph 19 to Schedule 6 of the MITA];
- (vii) Non-convertible loan stock issued by companies listed on the Malaysian Exchange of Securities Dealing and Automated Quotation Berhad (MESDAQ) [Income Tax (Exemption) (No.13) Order 2001]; and
- (viii) Bonds and securities issued by Pengurusan Danaharta Nasional Berhad [Income Tax (Exemption) (No. 5) Order 2001].

(d) Discount income or profit derived

The following discount income and profit received by the Fund are exempt from income tax:-

- (i) Discount income received on the securities and debentures mentioned in items 3.2(c)(i) to (iii) above [Paragraph 35(a) to Paragraph 35(c) to Schedule 6 of the MITA]; and
- (ii) Discount or profit received from the sale of bonds or securities issued at a discount without interest payable by Pengurusan Danaharta Nasional Berhad or Danaharta Urus Sendirian Berhad [Income Tax (Exemption) (No. 6) Order 2003].

(e) Foreign source income

The Fund may receive dividends, profits and other income from investments outside Malaysia. Income derived from sources outside Malaysia and received in Malaysia by the Fund is exempt from Malaysian income tax. However, such income may be subject to tax in the country from which the income is derived.

3.3 Deductibility of expenses

Section 33(1) of the MITA allows expenses incurred “wholly and exclusively in the production of gross income” to be deductible against the gross income, e.g. interest incurred on a loan to finance investments can be deducted against the dividend or interest income from that investment.

In addition, Section 63B allows partial deduction for other non-direct expenses known as “permitted expenses”. “Permitted expenses” comprise the manager’s remuneration, charges for maintenance of register of unit holders, share registration expenses, secretarial, audit and accounting fees, telephone charges, printing and stationery costs and postage. The amount deductible is calculated based on the formula below:

$$A \times \frac{B}{4C}$$

where

- A is the total of the permitted expenses incurred for that basis period;
- B is gross income consisting of dividends, interest and rent chargeable to tax for that basis period; and
- C is the aggregate of the gross income consisting of dividends (whether exempt or not), interest and rent, and gains made from the realisation of investments (whether chargeable to tax or not) for that basis period.

Provided that the amount of deduction to be made shall not be less than 10% of the total permitted expenses incurred for that basis period. In short, the deductible expenses will be a minimum of 10% and a maximum of 25% of the total permitted expenses, whichever is applicable.

Should the deduction exceed the income assessable to tax, the excess is not allowed to be carried forward for offset against the income of future years of assessment.

3.4 Real Property Gains Tax (“RPGT”)

Gains on disposal of investments by the Fund are capital gains and are not subject to income tax except for disposals of real property or shares in real property companies which are subject to the provisions under the Real Property Gains Tax Act, 1976. However, with effect from 1 January 2010, the Real Property Gains Tax (Exemption) (No 2) Order 2009 provides for exemption on RPGT for disposal of a chargeable asset made after 5 years from the date of acquisition.

Where the disposal of a chargeable asset is made within 5 years from its date of acquisition, the effective tax rate of 5% applies. Nevertheless, instead of a straight forward 5% tax rate on the chargeable gain, the 5% tax is calculated indirectly via an exemption given on the chargeable gain and the reduced chargeable gain is then multiplied by the applicable tax rate ranging from 30% to 5% (as shown in Table 1 below). The amount of exempt chargeable gain is calculated using the following formula:

$$\frac{A}{B} \times C$$

- where
- A is the amount of tax charged on the chargeable gain on the person at the appropriate tax rate reduced by the amount of tax charged on the gain at the rate of 5%
 - B is the amount of tax charged on the chargeable gain at the appropriate tax rate
 - C is the amount of the chargeable gain

Thereafter, the RPGT payable is calculated as follows:

$$[\text{Normal chargeable gain} - \text{exempted chargeable gain (as above)}] \times \text{Applicable tax rate as shown in Table 1 below}$$

Table 1: RPGT rates

Category of disposal	Percentage (%)
If disposed of within two years after the date of acquisition	30
If disposed of in the 3 rd year after the date of acquisition	20
If disposed of in the 4 th year after the date of acquisition	15
If disposed of in the 5 th year after the date of acquisition or thereafter	5

4. TAXATION OF UNIT HOLDERS

4.1. Distribution of taxable income

Unit holders will be taxed on their share of the total taxable income of the Fund distributed to them. This income distribution carries with it a tax credit for the tax paid by the Fund on its taxable income. This tax credit may be utilised by the unit holders to set off the tax payable by them. The tax authorities will refund any excess of tax credit over tax chargeable on the unit holders.

Distributions of income from the Fund received by individuals and other non-corporate unit holders who are tax residents in Malaysia, will be taxed at graduated rates. Individuals and other non-corporate unit holders who are not tax residents in Malaysia, will be subject to tax at the flat rate of 26% (for YA 2010 and onwards) on the distributions of income received.

Corporate unit holders, whether resident or not resident in Malaysia, will be subject to tax at the corporate tax rate of 25% on the distributions of income from the Fund received by them. For small and medium scale companies, the corporate tax rate applicable is 20% on the chargeable income up to RM500,000 and 25% on the amount exceeding RM500,000. A small and medium scale company is defined as a company with a paid-up capital of not exceeding RM2.5 million and is not related to a “related company”. A “related company” is defined as a company which has a paid-up capital exceeding RM2.5 million in respect of ordinary shares at the beginning of the basis period for a year of assessment. In short, a company will not qualify as a small and medium scale company under the following circumstances:

- i. more than 50% of the paid-up capital in respect of ordinary shares of the company is directly or indirectly owned by a “related company”;
- ii. more than 50% of the paid-up capital in respect of the ordinary shares of the “related company” is directly or indirectly owned by the first mentioned company; or
- iii. more than 50% of the paid-up capital in respect of the ordinary shares of the first mentioned company and the “related company” is directly or indirectly owned by another company.

4.2 Distribution of tax exempt income

Distributions of tax exempt income by the Fund from gains from realisation of investments, exempted interest/discount income, non-taxable single tier dividends, exempted dividends and foreign sourced income, will be exempted from tax in the hands of the unit holders.

4.3 Unit splits and sale, transfer and redemption of units

Unit splits issued by the Fund are not taxable in the hands of the unit holders. Any gains realised by unit holders (other than dealers in securities, insurance companies or financial institutions) from the sale, transfer or redemption of the units are treated as capital gains and thus, will not be taxable.

However, the gains realized by a person trading or dealing in securities, insurance companies or financial institutions are generally regarded as business income and are subject to income tax.

We hereby confirm that, as at the date of this letter, the statements made correctly reflect our understanding of the tax position under the current Malaysian tax legislation and the related interpretation and practice thereof, all of which are subject to change, possibly on a retrospective basis. In addition, unit holders are advised to seek professional advice on their respective tax positions.

Yours faithfully
