MANAGER'S COMMENT:

The global market continues to experience fluctuation over the month as the market digest shifting fiscal policy expectations amid tariff uncertainties. Equity markets experienced a significant selloff during the month led by a 4.07% decline for S&P500 Index. The selloff triggered a flight to safe-haven assets with gold prices surging 5.65% higher for the month. The US Federal Reserve (Fed) kept its key interest rate unchanged at the target range of 4.25% - 4.50% and continues to signal a 50 basis points (bps) rate cut projection in 2025. Following the announcement, US Treasury (UST) 2y plunged by 6.8bps to close at 3.97% on the day while UST 10y fell 4.1bps to close at 4.24%.

Performance of the USD remains hinged on the implementation of tariffs by the Trump administration. We still think that the safe-haven status of USD will be a good hedge against tail risks arising from geopolitical tensions and the US trade protectionism policies. In consideration of the interest rate and currency volatility, we find conviction in maintaining a portfolio duration of not more than three years.
